

Children and staff rise to the challenge of dressing as a book character

World Book day was a terrific success. The variety and ingenuity of costumes on display were amazing – and not only from the children. Members of staff came to school as Winnie the Witch, Wally, Mr Twit, Precious Rambotswe, Mary Poppins, the Cat in the Hat, Little Miss Sunshine and more... Among the children, Harry Potter was a clear favourite, along with pirates and princesses. We also had Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson, not to mention Hercule Poirot. Enjoy the pictures here. We will include more in the school magazine.
